Equine Liability Bill & Photo Release

In order to be protected, professionals or the equine activity sponsors business must display a warning notice in clearly readable print. The sign must contain the following warning notice:

Under North Carolina law, an equine activity sponsor or equine professional is not liable for an injury to or the death of a participant in equine activities resulting exclusively from the inherent risks of equine activities. Chapter 99E of the North Carolina General Statutes.

The Carolina Classic Horseman's Association, all other sponsors and participants, volunteers, board of directors, and officers shall not be held responsible or liable for any accidents, injuries, damages or deaths occurring to any person, animal or property. I understand and agree to all the above statements.

I grant to CCHA, its representatives and employees the right to take photographs of me and my property in connection with the above-identified event. I authorize CCHA, its assigns and transferees to copyright, use and publish the same in print and/or electronically. I agree that CCHA may use such photographs of me with or without my name and for any lawful purpose, including for example such purposes as publicity, illustration, advertising, and Web content.
